...RRANO, REGENT OF SPAIN.

Installation in Office—A Mumbling Farce—Pitiful Royalty.

Four maces preceded him as he entered, ...eled in all the glory of robes of crimson ...et, artistically decorated by crowns ...other insignia of royalty in gold, with ...velvet caps, surmounted by enormous ...ch feathers of snowy white. These ...ched solemnly in front, and at the steps ...the platform divided, fronting the Re... ...gain General. Two gilt chairs had been ...ed in front of the President's desk.— ...was for himself; the one to his right ...t was for the Regent, who, at once, ...k his seat upon it. Pompous Rivero, ...times more pompous at this moment, ...bout rising, delivered the oath, and the ...ent kneeled down, and, lifting his right ...d upward, said, while every soul within ...on the tiptoe of expectation, "I solemn... ...a pause, during which Serranno tried ...remember what he was to swear—"I ...mnly swear"—another pause, and a uni... ...l titter was heard in the Cortes. It ...evident that he had lost all recollec... ...of the response he was required to ...ke. So, while almost every one pitied ..., while on his knees, subject to criticism ...everybody as well as unkind remarks, ...plunged his hand in the breast pocket of ...uniform coat and brought out a dingy ...ce of paper, which he spread before him ...the reverse way. He now commenced ...w and said, "Yo"—"I"—when he found ...error, and, putting it before him, at... ...pted the oath again; but the poor vic... ...of mimic monarchy was almost blind— ...could not see it, neither could he say ...y more than "I solemnly swear." The ...use was in commotion. Murmurs and ...ses ran all round the house. Ladies ...ed their faces away or hid them with ...ir fans. It was a most humiliating posi... ...for poor Serrano. Rivero whispered ...him, "Put on your spectacles," which ...dy counsel was quickly followed, and ...ing arranged his glasses properly and ...ning the paper towards the light, Ser... ..., still on his knees, said: "I solemnly ...ear before God and this assembled Cortes ...nstituentes, to devote all my night-watch ..., all my endeavors, my whole existence, ...the defense of the country and the Con...tution." He then rose and took his seat ...ain, when he delivered his address to the ...rtes.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY IN NEW YORK —AN OLD LADY MURDERED BY HER INSANE DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

The New York Tribune of Saturday con...ns the following:

Last evening a shocking tragedy was en...ted in West Thirteenth street, an old ...y, while sleeping, having been brutally ...rdered by her insane daughter-in-law.— ...e murdered person, Mrs. Susan Lame... ...ux, a widow aged about seventy years, ...s for some time past lived with her son, ...r. George B. Deane, No. 342 West Thir... ...enth street. Although so advanced in ..., she seems to have retained her facul... ...es, and was in a good state of health.— ...or five or six years past, Rosanna, the wife ...Mr. Deane, a woman of 45 years of age, ...s shown symptoms of insanity, occasion... ...y developing into serious paroxysms.— ...the last severe attack the attendant ...ysician informed Mr. Deane that it ...uld be necessary, in case of another at... ...k, to send the patient to an asylum, as ...would not be safe to allow her to remain ...nger at large, for she would probably ...ke an attempt on the life of some one if ...t restrained of her liberty. A short time ...fore this she had secreted a razor, and ...hen it was found, had declared that she ...tended to put an end to her life with it. ...Last evening a number of the family, with ...few visitors, were congregated in the ...sement of the dwelling, and with them ...rs. Deane. Mrs. Lameraux, feeling fa... ...gued, had gone to her room and laid ...own on a lounge, and is supposed to have ...llen asleep. Unobserved by any of the ...arty, Mrs. Deane slipped out of the room, ...nd was gone apparently but a few minutes ...hen she returned. Addressing Mrs. Davis, ...boarder, she said: "You had better go ...o stairs and see what I have done." Al... ...ost at the same moment one of the chil... ...ren came in and said that Mrs. Lameraux ...as lying on the floor in her room, badly ...urt. The room of the injured woman, in ...he rear of the third floor, was visited, and ...he occupant was found lying on the floor ...eside the lounge, from which she had ap... ...parently fallen. On examining the body ...here were found several marks of violence, ...e though made with a hatchet, and this ...as afterwards found to have been the ...eapon used. There were wounds, or ...ather bruises, on the left side of the head, ...eck and shoulder, and also on the breast. ...A surgeon was at once called in, but the ...oman, although breathing when he ar... ...rived, never rallied, and died in about ten ...minutes.

There is no question but that Mrs. Deane committed the assault on the old lady, although she evinced no concern whatever when charged with the affair, nor made any explanation. She has for a long time past manifested a peculiar dislike to her mother-in-law, although she has never threatened actual violence. One of the idiosyncrasies of the insane woman was that she deceased was endeavoring to influence her son to make away with his property in order that she (Mrs. Deane) and her chil... ...dren should not inherit it. Although sub... ...ject to these fits of insanity, it was believed ...that Mrs. Deane was harmless, more especial... ...ly as she seemed to be completely under the ...control of her eldest daughter. Captain ...Washburn, of the ninth precinct, was in... ...formed of the occurrence, and took Mrs. ...Deane into custody. At the Charles street ...police station she was very unconcerned, ...and there was nothing in her demeanor to ...denote that she had been an actor in so ...fearful a tragedy. Mr. Deane is a well-to... ...do truckman. He has been for many years ...employed in that capacity in the Public ...Stores, and being somewhat of a politician ...in the ninth ward, has a very large circle ...of acquaintances, by whom he is univer... ...sally respected.

EXECUTED IN CUBA.—It is stated that Albert Wyeth, formerly of Harrisburg, Pa., was recently executed in Cuba by the Spaniards, together with one hundred of his comrades, captured on the schooner Grapeshot. This is probably exaggerated.

READ WHAT THE
HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES
SAY OF THE
BROOKLYN LIFE!
"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.
"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.
THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.
"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.
The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!
Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.
THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.
As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

THE SENTINEL.

Conservative and Democratic Nominee.

FOR SENATOR,

FOR THE NINETEENTH DISTRICT,

JOSHUA PERRY,

OF FRANKLIN.

THAT LETTER.

Lord Campbell says, until Coke appeared, England can scarcely be said to have seen a Judge of constancy, who was willing to surrender his place rather than his integrity.

We have no reason to believe, that until recently, any Judge ever sat on the Bench in North Carolina, who would not willingly abandon his seat rather than his integrity. The letter of Judge Reade to Mr. Hyman was greatly to his credit, it cannot be reconciled to his subsequent conduct, except in two ways. Either the letter was Pharisaic and hypocritical, or his political conduct partakes of the political degeneracy and corruption so common to the times. But our purpose was not to speak of Judge Reade's letter but Chief Justice Pearson's letter.

Early in the campaign for the Constitution, it was announced in the Standard, that Chief Justice Pearson was to write a letter; the letter was never written. When the Court adjourned and the Judge retired to the forks of the Yadkin, Gov. Holden wrote him to come out for the "new Constitution and the Republican party. The Judge replied that "he would do no such thing, that he could not so act without degrading the Judiciary." The letter is said to be stronger, even, than Judge Reade's, in its condemnation of judicial interference in political matters. Now is the time for the publication of that letter. Let the Governor produce it. Only sixteen men will be mortified by the production of the letter, while all others will applaud its sentiments as they did the letter of Judge Reade.—The sixteen to be mortified by the production of the letter will be the Chief Justice and his associates, with all the Circuit Court Judges, save Judge Mitchel, who scorned to enter the political hustings with his judicial brethren. We desire the publication of the letter because it is a triumphant vindication of the Bar, in signing the "solemn protest," and, at the same time, an unqualified condemnation of the judiciary for their late political partizan conduct.

Subsequently Judge Pearson did write a letter for Grant, which was regarded as the trump card of Radicalism, and which the party played on all occasions. Simultaneous with the letter comes the report that President Grant was to make of Judge Pearson a Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States. Soon after the appearance of the letter, the Judges signed a petition or memorial to Grant to make him Judge. When the Chief Justice set Henderson Adams and his papers in the rotunda, some of the "legislative hands" declared they would not petition or recommend him for the Judgship, and accordingly they set up Judge Rodman as their choice, and now the race goes on, the friends of the Chief Justice claiming he is entitled to the place because of the services rendered by his Grant letter.

"History is sure to repeat itself." Man is man and cannot change his nature. What he does in one age under like circumstances he will do in another. Alfred the Great was not only great, but wise and good; he was centuries ahead of the age in which he lived; he was a statesman, philosopher, poet, musician, and hung twenty-one Judges during his reign. Some were hung for crime and some for corruption.

GLUT IN THE MARKET.

The productions of a country often exceed its consumption, then comes low price and exportation, and often a glut in the market. The principle of demand and supply govern not only in matters of commerce and trade, but in the moral, political and intellectual world. When the country demanded high moral attainments, Washington, Madison and Monroe were produced. When the country demanded high intellectual attainments, Jefferson, Hamilton, Webster, Clay and Calhoun, were produced.—To talk of home demand and supply—when the people of North Carolina demanded that honors and places of trust should be given only to men of knowledge, intelligence, wisdom, justice and truth, Moore, Henderson, Taylor, Gaston, Mangum, Badger, Graham, Venable and Bragg, were produced.

No such demand is now upon the country and no such men are produced. Gov. Holden's administration demanded carpet baggers for places of honor and trust, and lo! Laflin, Ashley, Menninger, Deweese, Tourger, French, Brower, Martling, Heaton, Eaton, Tim Lee, Abbott, Littlefield, Davis and the rogue, Judge Alden, are produced. Great as the demand for carpet baggers was, the supply was greater. The result has been small exportation and great glut in the market.

Littlefield, Editor of the Standard, is among the exports. He has rented the finest residence in Tallahassee at $1,600.—We suppose his residence there will be of a short duration. His business will be, to work the Legislature, which is called now that its meeting may not conflict with that of North Carolina.

There was never in North Carolina such a demand for ignorance and vice as Governor Holden's administration creates, and there was never before such a production of it, yet the supply is far short of the demand. Even Laflin can not supply the demand. In the late Railroad meeting after casting 30,000 votes as State proxy upon being a little pressed he withdrew his vote, he could not supply such a villainous demand.

This demand for ignorance and vice will develop nothing but ignorance and vice. The mental, moral and intellectual qualities of the country must continue to decay or stand unemployed until the demand for ignorance and vice is supplied.

Chicken Stephens, Laflin, Littlefield and the Deep River Manufacturing Company may be able to supply the demand, but we defy them to produce a glut in the market.

GREAT REPUBLICAN MEETING AT SMITHFIELD.

John B. Cook gives a flaming account of a Republican meeting held in Smithfield to nominate Township officers. There are gentlemen in this City from Johnston county who reside near Smithfield who never heard of the meeting. Who attended besides John?

We hope the Conservatives of Johnston will not forget that their majority at the last election was 200, let them organize and put out their strongest and best men for Township officers. If the white men of the State will show one half the zeal of the colored man in the Township elections, there will be no doubt of their success. If the apathy and indifference which has characterized the whites since the close of the war, continues there is no doubt of the negro success.

"SOME ONE TO BE CHEATED."—This is the title given by the Albany Evening Journal to an article proclaiming the existence of some cheating project on the part of the Democratic party. Taking the expression in connection with the notorious cheats and corruptions among the radicals, it reminds us, as it would the lamented Lincoln, of a little story:—A party of passengers were playing poker on board a Mississippi steamer, when one of them—a professional—managed to extract surreptitiously from the deck of cards the four aces. When it came to the turn of a Yankee, who had noticed the cheat, to play, he adroitly took another ace from a pack of his own and planked it on the table.—"Halloo! fire and furies!" exclaimed the outwitted gambler, "I'll be d—d if there ain't cheating around this board." So with the radicals. Having been caught at their cheating tricks they cry out with indignation against the Democracy, "There's cheating around this board."—N. Y. Herald.

WHAT GEN. GRANT THINKS OF THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.—A Washington letter in the Baltimore Gazette says:

"Upon this point I have taken great pains to ascertain the true sentiments of Gen. Grant, and can state that to-day he expressed high gratification at the result of the Virginia elections; and was decided in his preferences of Senter, Hamilton, and Dent, over their gubernatorial competitors in Tennessee, Mississippi, and Texas. As it is known that Sumner, Bourwell, and their faction, are of diametrically opposite views, I would not guarantee that his Excellency will 'stick.' But I am assured by trustworthy gentlemen that he has at last taken the bit between his teeth, and will hold on at least for and during the summer."

REVEREND HENRY W. CAMP, a brevet Christian from Vermont, for a long time doing a little something as a Bible missionary among the negroes of Washington, was caught, on Monday, lugging off a leg of a mutton he had stolen. It seems if he was not a "soldier of the Cross," he was a "follower of the lamb."—Pomeroy's Democrat.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

WARRENTON, N. C., July 12th, 1869.

Editor Sentinel:

DEAR SIR:—I wish, through the medium of your paper, to call the attention of the managers of Southern Railways, to the great importance of arranging for reduced rates of travel, to persons visiting the South, with a view to the purchasing of land. At a Convention held in Atlanta, in January last, an arrangement was entered into for this purpose, by a few Railways, to continue until the 1st of July. Into this agreement, some of the most important Railroads failed to enter, so that the Eastern part of this State can only be reached with low rate tickets, by a route of such circuity as to put the cost up to very near regular rates.

I received a letter, a few days since, from a gentleman in New Jersey, who stated that the high rates of travel, South, deterred many persons from making trips of observation, who otherwise would do so. The Western roads charge one and a half cents per mile, while on Southern roads five and six cents are charged.

If we of the South wish to promote the prosperity of our country, it is very evident that the most speedy and practicable way to do it, is to induce persons from the North, with energy and capital, to come into our midst, buy our surplus lands, and engage in industrial enterprises. Every fair and honest means should be used to accomplish this end. The very first step to be taken is, so to reduce the rates of travel to this class of persons as will induce them to make excursions of observation, for I am satisfied an immense immigration would set in at once, if our advantages and resources were properly understood.

I learn, through my agents and others in the Northern States, that a large number of persons contemplate visiting the South this fall for the purpose of inspecting our lands, and purchasing if they should be pleased. Will not the managers of the various lines of travel, so reduce their rates as to enable them to come at as little cost as possible? This is the wish of the entire community, and the interest of the Railroads would doubtless be greatly promoted thereby, at least, in the end. Some managers have already, by the action above alluded to, indicated their appreciation of the importance of this matter. Let all others adopt their liberal policy, and let the time for the issue of these low rate tickets be indefinitely extended.

Very Truly Yours,
B. F. LONG.

SAFE ARRIVAL OF ANOTHER CUBAN EXPEDITION—DEATH OF TWO VIRGINIANS FROM CHOLERA.—The brig Ala Eldred cleared from New York on the 23rd of June last, for Jamaica, in ballast. The New York Sun says "the ballast consisted of one 100-pounder Parrott gun, two 40-pounders, seven 9-inch Dahlgren's and forty field-pieces, with a considerable quantity of small arms and ammunition. At Weehawken 120 men, under the command of Capts. Ackerman and Harrison, were taken on board, and the vessel set sail for Cuba with a fair wind and without molestation. The Ala Eldred reached Brazo, a small town about three hundred miles east of Havana, after a run of five days and seven hours, and was towed by mules up a river to about twenty two miles, where she discharged her cargo and passengers. Cholera had just then broken out in the camp of the patriots, and in consequence the one hundred and twenty of the expedition party refused to enlist in the Cuban ranks, even after they had been offered a bounty per head of one thousand dollars in gold, preferring to wait until the termination of the sickly season. On the second day after their arrival, however, the Spaniards made a descent upon Hernandez, and posted themselves on the adjacent heights; but the Americans, under Lieutenant Clancy, drove them from their position without the loss of a man. After this victory they re-embarked unmolested, and returned safely to New York on Saturday, with the exception of two men, named Walsh and Miller, of Petersburg, Va., who died of cholera on the way."

A SAD ROMANCE ENDED.—For many months past, a poor woman, meanly clad, may have been noticed sitting at the corner of Plum and Longworth streets, keeping a lonely vigil and waiting for the coming of one who never came. Her sad history is told in a few words. Her husband died in the army. She would never believe that he was dead, and was firm in the faith that he would again return to her. Constant brooding begat derangement. An impostor told her that if she would take her stand at one of the street corners every day her absent lord would soon come back to her. She did so, and every morning the patient watcher was found at her post, waiting wearily despite wind and weather, and, regardless of the jeers or smiles of passers by, she peered anxiously in every face, or gazed longingly toward the river in search of the one so dear to her, but whose features shall never more gladden her eyes. Few that saw the wan and weary watcher, failed to bestow a glance of pity, and many were the inquiries as to her sad history. But the faithful sentinel has left her accustomed stand, and her vigils are ended. The officers came yesterday and sent the pitiable creature to the Longview Asylum, where, perhaps, she will await her unreturning husband until called upon to join him beyond the dark river.

VIRGINIA STATE OFFICERS AND CONGRESSMEN.—The following are the Virginia State officers elected on the 6th instant:

Governor, Gilbert C. Walker, conservative: Lieutenant Governor, John F. Lewis, conservative; Attorney General, James C. Taylor, conservative.

The following are the members of Congress elected:

First district, Dr. D. M. Norton, (colored,) independent radical; second district, Colonel Jas. H. Platt, radical; third district, Chas. H. Porter, radical; fourth district, Levi C. Thayer, conservative; fifth district, Colonel Robert C. Ridgway, conservative; sixth district, Wm. Milnes, Jr., conservative; seventh district, Lewis McKenzie, conservative; eighth district, James K. Gibson, conservative; at large, Joseph Segar, conservative.

MR. FORNEY FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE.—A correspondent of the New York Evening Post says:

"It is averred here in republican circles that Col. John W. Forney expects to be elected the next United States Senator from North Carolina. He has recently purchased a large tract of land there."

It might be added that the same Mr. Forney once expected to be elected to the United States Senate from Pennsylvania.

The Marseilles journals publish the particulars of a fearful drama that has recently occurred in that city. Madame Bonnefoy, whose conduct was known to be irregular, armed herself with a revolver, and in a few minutes shot her sister, her two children, her husband, and then attempted to kill herself. The husband and two children are dead, but the rest, although badly wounded, will most likely recover.

A son of Alf. Burnett, the humorist, had one of his eyes put out by an explosion of gunpowder, in Cincinnati, on Monday.

GENERAL NEWS.

A shipment of California watermelons has just been sent to New York.

Capt. James M. Ghee, an old steamboat captain, died in St. Louis last Friday.

It is reported that a new Conservative paper will be started in Washington in the fall, with Hon. Edmund Burke, of New Hampshire, at the head of its editorial corps.

PROFITS OF SOUTHERN COTTON MANUFACTURERS.—The annual report of the Augusta, Ga., Cotton Factory show the following figures as the result of the year's operation: Total earnings, $149,763 75; total expenses $49,046 37; net profits on the year's operations $120,717 38, on a working capital of $600,000. What stronger inducements should Southern capitalists desire to induce them to enter largely into the business of manufacturing cotton?

THE NATIONAL CAMP MEETING—Round Lake, N. Y., July 11.—Bishop Simpson preached this morning to one of the largest congregations ever assembled to listen to a sermon. At least 8,000 people were present, while on the ground there were from 12,000 to 15,000 more who were unable to gain admittance to the circle. During the day there were, as variously estimated, from 35,000 to 40,000 people present. Twenty-two States are represented. Several female preachers spoke in different parts of the grounds.

During a thunder storm last week, the dwelling house of Mr. G. W. Ford, in Porter, Maine, was struck by lightning, and Charles W. Day—a young man in the employ of Mr. Towle—was instantly killed.—Mr. Day had just risen from the supper-table, and was drinking at a sink, but a few feet distant, when the lightning entered the room immediately over his head.—There were three other persons in the room at the time, none of whom were injured.

A singular and fatal accident occurred on board the steamer Helen Marr, on her passage from Allegan, Mich., down the Kalamazoo river to Saugatuck, on the 3rd inst., resulting in the death of Miss Mary Simmons and the severe and perhaps fatal injury of Miss Laura Joslin. It seems that these ladies were standing on the upper deck of the boat, and owing to the high water in the river, were swept overboard by the projecting limb of a tree. Miss Joslin, after sinking the second time, was rescued from the water by Harold Weeks, clerk of the boat, and Mr. Albro Gardner, a passenger.

A correspondent of the Churchman tells of a clergyman whose salary was made up by subscription. Not proving sufficient to support him, his wife gave music lessons. When the salary was collected, a mean miser, who had subscribed $10, refused to pay over $5, because he paid the minister's wife $5 for a quarter's instruction of his daughter. Another cut down his subscription from $40 to $20, because the wife received $20 for teaching his daughter music.

The Roman Catholics claim in Massachusetts a population of 350,000, who are provided with 128 churches, beside buildings, 26 chapels and stations, 155 priests, 88 clerical students, 3 male and 15 female institutions, 5,855 scholars in their two colleges, 3 ladies seminaries and 13 parochial free schools, 5 hospitals, 5 asylums, with 550 orphans, and 12 benevolent and charitable institutions.

Buck, the carpet-bag candidate for Congress in the Selma (Ala.) district, is the incumbent at the present time of no less than five offices, State, Federal, and municipal, the aggregate salaries of which amount to about $15,000 annually. D. T. Corbin, carpet-bag municipal attorney of Charleston, S. C., also holds five offices and is a candidate for several more.

The towns of Wallingford and Shrewbury, Vt., are much excited over the discovery of a valuable "lead mountain" within their territory.

The Scandinavians of Minnesota have increased to such an extent that they demand recognition in the distribution of the State offices. Colonel Hans Matteson is to be their candidate for Secretary of State on the Republican ticket.

General John T. Averill publishes a letter declining to be a candidate for Governor of Minnesota.

INCOMES OF NEW YORKERS.—Horace Greeley reports his income for last year, $20,800; Moses S. Beach (formerly of the Sun,) $17,500; Wm. Whitney, of the Sunday Mercury, $8,920; S. B. Chittenden, of the Independent, $96,431, and the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, $21,715; H. B. Claflin, $350,000; A. A. Low, $223,581.

Thomas Mulhall, twice convicted at Cleveland, Ohio, for aiding and abetting the murder of David P. Skinner, is to be hanged August 26th, and John Kilfoil, convicted of being an accessory to the plot to rob Mr. Skinner, was sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment.

Madame Eliza Haycraft, widely known throughout the West died in St. Louis on Friday suddenly of apoplexy. She leaves an estate valued at over $300,000.

There is a new metal composed by melting together about 70 parts of copper, 20 of nickle, 5½ of zinc, and 4½ of cadmium.—This alloy resembles somewhat German Silver, and has recently been made in Paris for the manufacturing of spoons, forks, &c.

Dr. Woodward, of Quincey, has left the bulk of his wealth to the town to establish and maintain a female institute for the education of females from the age of ten to twenty years, who are born in that town.

The negroes monopolized the last Fourth of July celebration in Charleston, S. C. During the exercises the chaplain, the Rev. W. H. Brown (black), made a prayer in which he "thanked God who had made the colored people free after two hundred and fifty years of bondage, and had placed them in triumph over the white men: that the colored people now had the white men down in the dust and their feet upon their necks."

The Indianapolis Journal boasts that there are 2,720 miles of railroad completed or nearly finished in that State, and 2,552 more projected. The value of roads in operation is eighty-one millions; the estimated cost of projected roads sixty-four millions.

The first spike of the Southern Central railroad, connecting Oswego with Auburn, N. Y., was driven on Saturday. The spike, of solid silver, was driven into a polished oak tie by the president of the company, W. L. Jones, Esq. An immense concourse of people were present.

At Hilldale, Michigan, on the evening of the 3d, a young man named Frank Wise attempted to discharge a rocket. He did it unskilfully, and the rocket struck him in the face, breaking his jaw and loosening his teeth, taking his nose off, and blowing out both eyes, and passing off at the forehead. It also killed him.

Something new, in the shape of a faucett for measuring "long sweetnin" can be seen at W. C Stronach & Co's.

Mill Wright; P. J. Wray, builds mills, cotton g ns, and saw mills.

Meeting of the Stockholders of the W. C. & R. Railroad postponed for "extraordinary reasons."

Corn in a hard state, a mowing Machine and New Flour: W. H. Jones & Co.

Extra train on R. & G. Railroad to morrow.

Hillsborough Tannery, W. G. & J. Norwood, makes the various sorts of leather, and tans all kinds of hides. We hope they will extend their business to Raleigh and tan the hides of some of the scamps about here.

THE CIRCUS.—We were mistaken yesterday, as regards the reason for the Circus opening on the vacant lot near the new depot; it was not because Nash Square was not large enough for the pavilion, but because the pavilion was not large enough to hold the official dead heads for whom the Company were required to furnish tickets for opening on the Square. We understand the Superintendent of Public Works demanded fifty tickets for the use of the State Department for the privilege of exhibiting on Nash Square.

COMMITTED.—Yesterday, Orren Page was committed to jail by C. P. Williams, Esq., on a charge of stealing a quantity of bacon and other delicacies from Mrs. Mary Holland, of the Auburn neighborhood.

THE WEATHER, is oppressive, sultry, enervating, dry, dusty, and altogether disagreeably hot. The sun-shine is a thick red, the breeze travels too slowly to be refreshing, because of the burden of dust it has to carry on its wings. We look upon the street and feel a melting sympathy for the poor pedestrians whom business or necessity forces to brave the hot rays of old Sol, who would appear, to a lively imagination, to be indulging in the mischievous pastime of darting his rays at them. A little negro attempts to whistle "tramp, tramp," and breaks down in the middle of the second bar. Nothing seems to possess life enough to get through the day with, except the drays carrying brick and sand to the masons, and even they are greatly relaxed in their movements; while the bricklayers and hod carriers stop about every minute to wipe the sweat from their eyes with the crook of their forefingers, and then "go it again," but with subdued energy. The evidence of all the senses confirm the fact that the weather is very warm.

THE WORK PROGRESSES—The walls of the cellar of the new market house have made their appearance above ground, and the tier of pillars entirely across the Square are being built. We think it a great oversight not to have sunk a basement room at the end of the Market House next to Wilmington Street, corresponding with the one on Fayetteville Street. If the people are to be skinned in the way of taxation to build a fine new Market House, it is as well to no it right as wrong. It is not too late, even now, to rectify the omission, and we suggest to the Commissioners the propriety of doing it.

JUDGED.—We mentioned, yesterday, the fact of Mr. Bennett Buffalo losing a cow and tracing her to this City. To-day the parties implicated, Atlas Buffalo and Frank Earnest, both colored, were up before Justice J. P. Adams, and, on the evidence in the case, were sent on to the next term of the Superior Court for trial. Not being able to give the required security, they were sent to jail.

MORE BEEF STEALING.—Mr. J. W. Upchurch, lost an ox a few days ago. He found the hide in Mr. Love's shop; Mr. Love bought the hide of John Price, (colored butcher;) John Price bought the ox of Wm. Wardrope, (col.,) Wm. somehow, shifted the affair over on Peter Montague; Peter says he "dunno notin bout de beef." So the matter stands before Justice Adams, waiting for witnesses, as we go to press.—The indications at present are, that Wm. and Pete will go to board in the brick house awhile.

APPLES.—A friend sends us a basket of nice apples, from the orchard of Mr. J. B. Zollicoffer, near Weldon. These are the largest and best apples we have seen this season. Mr. Zollicoffer has a large orchard, with a great variety of good fruit. He has recently added much to the size of his orchard and the variety of his fruit. We wish him all the success which his energy and industry merits.

TOO FAST.—The Standard of this morning says that Jack Pool denies that Col. Martin has any pecuniary interest in his "shebang," "as was stated in the SENTINEL some days since." The SENTINEL has stated no such thing.

AFTERWARD.

HEB. XII, 11.

'Not while the surging billows roll
And overwhelm the struggling soul,
While darkness, black as Egypt's night,
Shuts out all gleams of heavenly light;
Not then the blessing comes to show,
The fruits that from affliction grow—
But afterward.

Not while the bending, breaking heart
Aches 'neath the chastening's keenest smart,
And counting o'er its woes again,
Can only throb and thrill with pain;
Not then the wounded soul can know
The fruits that from such anguish grow,
But afterward.

Not while with quivering lip and eye
We watch our dearest treasures die,
And gaze into the open grave,
Feeling our importence to save;
Then only grievous seems the case,
The peaceful fruits of righteousness
Come afterwards.

When the first tempest gust is o'er,
Calmed by a voice unheard before;
When God's own hand the cloud uplifts
And stars beam brightly through the rifts,
Tis then the heart begins to know,
What fruits from sorest grief below
Come afterward.

When heavenly grace so pure and calm
Pours o'er the wound its healing balm,
While the sweet Comforter stands near
To whisper words of holy cheer;
The chastened spirit then may know
What blessedness from pain can flow,
Long afterward.

When some sweet flower, till then unknown,
Springs with a grace and power its own,
Beside the path so dark before,
And lives a blessing ever more;
Then the lone heart may learn to smile,
Counting its treasures less the while,—
Thus afterward.

But oh! not yet may we discern
One half the blessedness, nor learn
The hidden good that lurks within
Each stroke of painful discipline.
Only in Heaven can we know,
All the rich fruits which earthly woe
Brings afterward.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—The attention of our readers is called to this old and reliable Company, "The Ætna Life." Its history is unparalleled in any country. Its prosperity is truly remarkable. In 1868 it issued over 13,300 policies. The best evidence of its skill and success is its accumulated assets of over $12,000,000. The returns, this year, show that its business is steadily increasing. Its rates are lower than any other first class Company that pays dividends to policy holders.—See advertisement. W. H. Crow, Esq., is the General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James, and Rev. Dr. Kingsbury is the General State Solicitor.

CONSOLIDATED.—The contemplated consolidation of the Charlotte and Columbia Railroad with the South Carolina Railroad, has been perfected, and the line now from Charlotte, N. C., to Augusta, Georgia, is a continuous one under the management of but one set of officers. Passengers and freight can now go from Charlotte to Augusta without change of cars.

AT Augusta, Georgia, on Sunday, the thermometer stood at 102 degrees in the shade.

STATE NEWS.

EXTRA MAGISTRATES.—The people here—negroes and all—are terribly exercised about not being allowed an extra magistrate in their township. The County Commissioners are said to have decided against this township being entitled to one. The Miltonians think they have the law on their side, and with this jawbone they threaten to smash the dictum of the Commissioners.—Milton Chronicle.

ROBBERY AT CHAPEL HILL.—On Sunday night the 27th ult., the dwelling of Prof. Patrick was entered and a valise, coverlet and some other small articles stolen. The burglar effected an entrance by taking off a lock on one of the doors. A strange negro had been loafing about here a day or two previous to the burglary, and he was seen about 6 miles from here the next day traveling in the direction of Hillsboro. A barefoot negro track was visable at the house of Mr. Patrick the next morning after the burglary.—Hillsboro Recorder.

An unsuccessful attempt to break out of jail was made by a number of colored prisoners, in Wilmington, on Sunday morning last.

RAPE.—A diabolical attempt at rape on a small colored girl, 10 years old, was made in Wilmington on Sunday night last by some fiend, but whether white or black, the frightened victim could not tell.

Nick Debose, a negro, stole a shirt in Wilmington last Saturday night; was detected, "cut dirt," dropped the shirt, but was finally captured and lodged in jail.

THE DETAILED MILITIA.—The colored contingent of the two hundred militia, ordered to prepare for some imaginary danger foreboded by our sapient Governor, were organized at the Academy Green, yesterday afternoon. The officers are—Geo. B. Willis, Captain; Wm. H. Johnston, First Lieutenant; Israel Abbott, Second; J. D. Dudley, Orderly Sergeant.

The white quota has not yet been raised, and we understand drafting will have to be resorted to ere that organization can be completed.

As this militia force is raised for the "protection" of our citizens, we trust the Lieutenant Colonel in command, will at once inaugurate a vigorous campaign against those little pests—the mosquitoes, their being more danger from these blood-thirsty insects than from all other foes combined.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal.

AN IMPORTANT BUT DOUBTFUL ISSUE.

The question whether greenbacks can be a legal tender under the Constitution of the United States is, as most of our readers are no doubt aware, pending at this time in the Supreme Court. It is a question of vast moment, deeply involving the vital interests of the whole people of this country.

One of the greatest men in the nation, one who knows personally and well all the Judges of the Supreme Court and has argued hundreds of cases before them, was recently asked what would be their decision in the legal-tender case. "If you go into the streets," he replied, "and ask the first ignorant boy you meet, his answer will be just as likely to be correct as any that I could give." He added that the Judges are equally or about equally divided in their opinions, or are at least supposed to be, but he more than insinuated that some of them could be bought.

If any of the Judges are purchasable, we suppose that either men of the creditor class will bribe them to decide that only specie can be a legal tender or that men of the debtor class will bribe them to pronounce that greenbacks are a legal tender. As the creditor class has undoubtedly a great deal more money than the debtor class, the greenbacks may be supposed to have but a poor chance. But the enforcement of the payment of all debts in gold and silver would cover the whole land with bankruptcy and ruin. It would produce a general state of affairs absolutely frightful. We would like to know what view Congress and the administration will take in this case—whether they prefer to see the greenbacks ruled out or retained; for they can, by increasing the number of judges or by other means, obtain whatever result they want in spite of any power arrayed in opposition to them.

A ROMANTIC INCIDENT.—Here is a pretty story from Figaro, which reminds one of the courtly brigands of younger countries. The duke and duchess of Saxony were driving in the neighborhood of Sorrento, when suddenly their carriage was surrounded by the bandits of the terrible Fuoco, the bravest, most accomplished, and most feared of Neapolitan banditti. Resistance being useless, the duke's party surrendered. Fuoco approached the carriage, hat in hand, and politely asked whom had he the honor of addressing. He was informed. Bowing to the party, he handed the coachman a gold coin, and said to the duke, as he dismissed his men, "Will your highness pardon the audacity and insolence of my men, and bring with you a favorable recollection of the unfortunate Fuoco." It is unnecessary to say that the duke was generous, and that he sent to his gallant captor a magnificent gold watch valued at 4,000 francs.

DESTRUCTIVE LOCOMOTIVE EXPLOSION.—A dispatch of July 8, from Kankakee, Illinois, to the Chicago Republican, gives the following account of a serious railroad disaster:

"About 2½ o'clock this morning the boiler of engine 122, train 19, Illinois Central Railroad, exploded, two and a half miles north of here. James Farquhar, the engineer, had his head, arms and legs burned off, and was killed. Herman Bradshaw, a brakeman, is badly injured, and is not expected to live. Colburn, fireman, scalded, but will recover. The engine was totally destroyed."

CAVING IN OF A TUNNEL.—CAMBRIDGE, Ohio, July 18.—An arch tunnel on the Central Ohio branch line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, at this place, gave way this morning, letting down a mass of rock and dirt. Very little detention to travel will be caused, as everything can be removed in a short time.

PRESENTS OF SILVER FROM MEXICO.—A magnificent collection of solid silver articles from some modest citizen of Mexico, who declines to make known his name, and sent through Senor Sabos Yturbide, has arrived in Washington. The articles are presents to President Grant, Gen. Sherman, ex-Secretary Seward and Mrs. ex-President Lincoln. Does this foreshadow the annexation of the Mexican silver mines? Quien sabe?—N. Y. Herald.

George Ironmonger, a young man of Detroit, aged about twenty-five years, and two young ladies, Barbara Stow and Eliza Wright, were drowned in Clinton River, near Utica, Michigan, on the 3d instant. They were out boating, and it is supposed the boat upset. One of the young ladies and Ironmonger were soon to be married.

The proof that Gen. Grant's rule is to accept whatever presents are offered him would be perfect if there were any exception to it.—Courier-Journal.

Every one should take the oath of fidelity to the Government and the Constitution, but not be required to swear that he never gave aid or comfort to the rebellion. It seems to us a strained construction of existing laws which required this."

Maj. Wofford visited Sherman to-day and received from him additional assurances of an impartial registration and election in Mississippi.

The military officers who conducted the registration, and election in Virginia will be ordered to Mississippi, for the same duty. The proclamation ordering the Mississippi election on the fourth Tuesday in November has been signed by the President.

Phillips is now arguing in behalf of Yerger in the habeas corpus case. Hoar represent taking notes.

LATER.

The proclamation for the Mississippi election, as promulgated, submits to a separate vote, the disfranchisement clause, the ineligibility clause, the restriction on the State from lending money to corporations or becoming Stockholders in corporations. It also submits to a separate vote a part of the oath of office as follows:

"That I have never, as a member of any Convention, voted for or signed any ordinance of secession; that I have never as a member of any State Legislature, voted for the call of any Convention that passed any such ordinance."

It is understood that sections 4 to 15 inclusive of Article 15, under the head of "Ordinances," are considered as forming no part of said Constitution.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Lasative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and renders them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as

OUR CHILDHOOD.

BY GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

'Tis sad, yet sweet, to listen
To the soft wind's gentle swell,
And think we hear the music
Our childhood knew so well;
To gaze out on the even,
And the boundless fields of air,
And feel again our boyhood's wish
To roam like angels there.

There are many dreams of gladness
That cling around the past—
And from the tomb of feeling
Old thoughts come thronging fast;
The forms we loved so dearly
In the happy days now gone,
The beautiful and lovely,
So fair to look upon.

Those bright and gentle maidens
Who seemed so formed for bliss,
Too glorious and too heavenly
For such a world as this;
Whose dark, soft eyes seemed swimming
In a sea of liquid light,
And whose locks of gold were streaming
O'er brows so sunny bright.

Whose smiles were like the sunshine
In the spring time of the year—
Like the changeful gleams of April,
They followed every tear!
They have passed—like hopes away,
And their loveliness has fled;
Oh, many a heart is mourning
That they are with the dead.

Like the brightest buds of summer,
They have fallen with the stem;
Yet oh, it is a lovely death
To fade from earth like them!

And yet the thought is saddening
To muse on such as they
And feel that all the beautiful
Are passing fast away;
That the fair ones whom we love
Grow to each loving breast
Like the tendril of the creeping vine,
Then perish where they rest.

And we can but think of these,
In the soft and gentle spring,
When the trees are waving o'er us,
And the flowers are blossoming;
And we know that winter's coming
With his cold and stormy sky
And the glorious beauty round us
Is budding but to die!

"JANE SHORE"—AN AMUSING INSTANCE OF THE GREAT POWER OF GOOD ACTING.

The occasion was the benefit night of Mrs. Phillips. That lady was playing Jane Shore, in Maturin's tragedy of that name.—The house—and the Front Street theatre is a large one—was crowded. In the first tier, on one side, in a front seat of the box adjoining the proscenium, was conspicuous the burly form of a sailor, with a large, red face. He was well known to many of the audience as Captain Hugg, the prosperous owner and master of an Eastern shore oyster schooner. He was watching the play with intense interest and feeling, as was manifest from the tears that coursed down his weather-beaten cheeks. He also frequently placed his right hand nervously upon his left breast; but whether this action had any connection with his sympathy for the heroine of the play, or was the result of prudent concern for the wallet full of Baltimore and Ohio railroad shinplasters he was known to carry in that region, the sequel will show.

It is proper to state here, that, although the date of these occurrences was long after the money panic of 1837, (known as the "shinplaster era") had subsided, and the banks had fully resumed specie payments, yet the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company, by some financial legerdemain, kept the community flooded with its one and two dollar bills, which were almost the only currency used in the smaller trade transactions of the city.

The play had proceeded to the scene in the last act where Shore's beauteous wife (late the omnipotent mistress of Edward the Fourth, but now by Gloster's cruel edict, an outcast wanderer in the streets, with none to give her food or shelter) comes upon the stage, utters a heart-rending monologue, and falls, exhausted with starvation and fatigue, to the ground. As the accomplished actress proceeded in the melting relation of her woes the audience were so rapt by her beauty and misfortunes that but few of them observed the demonstrations of Capt. Hugg's passion. That gallant son of Neptune rose slowly to his feet convulsed with the throes of a mighty sympathy, and with tearful eyes and bated breath listened to Jane's pitiful story.—When, at length, she dropped to the ground, seemingly in the last extremity of exhausted nature, the Captain's compassion reached its climax. He sprang from the box to the stage, bent over her prostrate form, jerked from his pocket his capacious wallet, tore it open with trembling fingers, exposing to view its piled-up treasure, and exclaimed, in a voice choked with sobs, and tremulous with unfeigned emotion:

"Look up, Mistress Shore, look up! By G—d, madam, you shan't starve while I've a Baltimore and Ohio railroad shinplaster in my pocket book."

What followed beggars description. For a moment the vast audience remained hushed, as if from involuntary admiration of the big hearted sailor's generosity and gallantry. Then, as the ludicrousness of the scene seemed to flash suddenly upon them, there arose such a clamor of stamping feet, clapping hands, pounding of canes, shouts, roars, yells, shrieks, and screams of laughter, as never before or since shook the walls of any theatre.

We, the undersigned, having been appointed supervisors of the above Company, do certify that we neither own any stock or tickets, nor can we, and we will here state that the drawing will be conducted fairly for all who hold tickets, whether present or not at the drawing. We will publish a full list of all numbers drawing prizes, which will be sent to any one desiring it.

CYRUS P. MENDENHALL,
SIDS H. ROGERS,
JAMES H. FOOTE,
L. C LATHAM,
Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars, comes in possession of a homestead, which, under anyother circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents teat already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.

JOHN SKINNER,
SECRETARY.
